Call for Exhibitors

Dear Colleague:

On behalf of the HBCU Faculty Development Network, we invite you to exhibit at the Seventeenth National HBCU Faculty Development Symposium, in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Faculty and administrators from a wide variety of historically black colleges and universities will be giving presentations, together with representatives of other institutions and organizations. Our efforts are directed towards creating a dialogue that will mutually benefit us all. For exhibitors, these conferences provide an opportunity to share with faculty information on resources, materials, and career opportunities for our students. You and your organization can become involved in two ways:

- Associate - $500, includes an exhibit booth in the registration area, one full registration, and acknowledgment in the conference program and on the Network's website.
- Partner - $1000, includes above plus special acknowledgment and introduction at a plenary banquet/reception.

If you have any questions, please contact us via email at network@hbcufdn.org. We encourage you to check the Network website at <http://hbcufdn.org> for current information. You may also contact us at the address or telephone numbers listed below.

Sincerely,

Board of Directors

HBCU Faculty Development Network
