

Invitation to Summer Virtual Writing Sessions

Dear Colleagues,

PRISSEM is pleased to invite you to our summer virtual writing group!

We'll meet weekly on Mondays at 2-3pm, Tuesdays at 10-11am, and Wednesdays at 9-10:30am eastern, starting Tuesday, June 3, 2025. These sessions provide dedicated focused writing time in a shared virtual meeting space to help you meet your writing goals.

These sessions aim to build community and provide a space for connection. Joining even for a few minutes can help us stay grounded and remind us of our purpose. You are welcome to join as many or as few sessions as you can. We understand schedules vary, so feel free to pop in when you are able.

We will maximize focused writing time. Sessions will include brief greetings, goal declarations, and check-ins, with an extended period of quiet writing time in between.

If you are interested in joining us, please sign up here. We will send a calendar invite with the Google Meet link to those who sign up.

Hope to see you soon!
