CALL FOR MANUSCRIPTS

The Center for the Advancement of STEM Leadership (CASL) is pleased to announce that the Journal of STEM Leadership and Broadening Participation (JSLBP) is now accepting submissions.

The JSLBP offers critical information that leaders from all institutions of higher education can use to build their capacity in understanding the cultural complexities and institutional realities of recruiting and retaining diverse students in STEM. To this end, each author's submission can be ideally used as:

- A tool for leader self-reflection
- A reference on the foundational theory and practice of leadership that serves broadening participation
- A guide to real world examples of effective leadership for broadening participation in action.

All manuscripts submitted for review in the JSLBP should follow the 7th Edition of the APA Publication Manual and should not be under consideration for publication elsewhere.

SUBMISSION FEES

There are no submission fees or author processing charges (APCs) associated with publishing in the Journal of STEM Leadership and Broadening Participation.

DEADLINE: MAY 31, 2023
